OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Last address must be given. Name of deceased must be given in full, and if a married woman, the name of her husband must be given in full. Occupation must be given in all cases. Cause of death must be certified to by a physician, if there was one in attendance, and the coroner must be notified in all cases of violent death. Physicians are required to report cases of death occurring without medical attendance. Information should be given by some person who knows the facts. All questions must be answered if possible. Do not state "Unknown" if any reasonable effort will obtain the information. Write plainly with pen and ink. Use no abbreviations. The certificate must be complete and correct before a permit for burial will be issued. See instructions on back of certificate.
